Select the appropriate instrument with the Touch Screen.

The operation is conducted by using the different instruments for different situations.
Here are the descriptions of what the different information displayed means.

Messages that Appear During the Operation

The condition of the patient and the operation situation changes every moment. Understand the marks that are displayed during an operation and